

7.1.11 National/International Days, Events, Festivals Celebrated by GNC during 2022-23

Report

Guru Nanak College recognizes and celebrates the numerous festivals, reflecting its commitment to interfaith harmony and understanding. Festivals such as Diwali, Basant, Holi, Vaisakhi, Gurgurab, and others are observed with great fervor and enthusiasm. These celebrations include special prayers, traditional rituals, cultural performances, etc. allowing students and faculty to come together in a spirit of joy and camaraderie. The college also commemorates important national days and events that hold significance for the country. Independence Day, Republic Day, Gandhi Jayanti, Sports Day etc. and various state-specific festivals are observed with patriotic songs, speeches, lectures, competitions, cultural programs etc. These celebrations serve as reminders of the rich cultural heritage and diversity of India while instilling a sense of pride, patriotism, equality and fraternity among students. In addition to national festivals, Guru Nanak College acknowledges and celebrates various international observances that promote global awareness and solidarity. Days such as International Women's Day, Earth Day, Human Rights Day, Yoga Day, and World Environment Day are marked with awareness campaigns, workshops, seminars, and community service activities. These celebrations provide opportunities for students to engage with pressing global issues and contribute to positive change. The college also dedicates days to raise awareness about important social issues and causes. Days such as International Day of Peace, Social Justice Day, International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, etc. Days are observed through workshops, lectures, seminars, rallies, and outreach programs. These events not only foster a sense of belonging and pride but also promote cross-cultural exchange and appreciation. These initiatives aim to educate and empower students to become agents of change in their communities. The college regularly hosts seminars, workshops, guest lectures, discussions, competitions etc. where students, faculty, and experts come together to exchange ideas, share experiences, and learn from one another. The information for all these events and activities is provided to students through notices, circulars, brochures, pamphlets etc. Following is the long list of Days and Festivals celebrated during the session 2022-23:
