

7.1.8 Measures initiated by Guru Nanak College Budhlada for providing an inclusive environment i.e. tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities during 2022-23

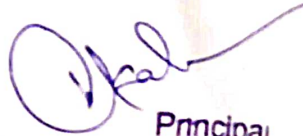

Report

Guru Nanak College, a prominent educational institution, has been steadfast in its commitment to fostering communal harmony and creating an inclusive environment for its students, faculty, and staff. Embracing the teachings of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, the college endeavors to promote unity, harmony, understanding, and respect among individuals from diverse backgrounds. This report aims to highlight the initiatives and efforts undertaken by Guru Nanak College to nurture communal harmony within its campus. The college has taken significant strides in developing a curriculum that reflects inclusivity and diversity. Courses are designed to incorporate perspectives from various cultures, religions, and socio-economic backgrounds. By promoting multicultural understanding, Guru Nanak College encourages students to appreciate and celebrate differences while fostering empathy and mutual respect. The college regularly hosts seminars, workshops, guest lectures, discussions etc. where students, faculty, and experts from different religious, linguistic, social and cultural backgrounds come together to exchange ideas, share experiences, and learn from one another. These events provide a platform for open communication, dispelling stereotypes, and building bridges across communities. Throughout the academic year, Guru Nanak College organizes various cultural celebrations and festivals to showcase the rich tapestry of diversity present within its community. Events such as celebrations of Diwali, Gurburab, Basant, Important Language Days, various social service activities, etc. are organised on regular basis in the college. The information for all these events and activities is provided to students through notices, circulars, brochures, pamphlets etc. Following is the long list of college initiatives for providing an inclusive environment:
